WHO WE ARE

West Virginia Writers was established in 1977 by invitation of the West Virginia Arts and Humanities Council. We are the state's largest organization for writers.

With the support of members and sponsors, our nonprofit, all-volunteer organization fosters, assists, and coordinates statewide activities in support of writers and writing programs.

We are founded on the fundamental principle that the written word is one of the distinguishing characteristics of all human endeavors. Our aim is to expand and develop creative writing and professional opportunities for writers and to connect the state's writers with others in the literary community and the public at large.

The Executive Board: six officers, the president emeritus, and 10 regional representatives plan and conduct our year-round programs.

President, Susan Nicholas, Huntington
1st Vice President, Stacy Tritt, Parkersburg
2nd Vice President, Kathy Manley, Chapmanville,
